Epitaph

All I see is your blood spilling on the floor
All I hear is your heart slowly dying

And in a silent scream, gasping with pain
You give me your last breath, a breath of air in the wind

Chorus:
I give you your epitaph
Written in your own blood
I honor you with an epitaph
Farewell! Suffer eternally!

We will die! X2

Chorus:
I give you your epitaph
Written in your own blood
I honor you with an epitaph
Farewell!   Suffer eternally!

Solo

There's nothing left of you but this dismembered body
There's nothing left of you but a vanished memory

Distress of my humanity over your mutilated corpse
Body rigidity with the aspect of an opal stone
Eternal coldness of a silent crypt
Allegorical cenotaph of an organic death

Chorus:
I give you your epitaph
Written in your own blood
I honor you with an epitaph
Farewell!   Suffer eternally!
