

IMMORTAL

Let our armies be ready
Let our soldiers be prepared for battles
Set the caskets and the stakes
We will lose some, they will save us.....

Chorus:
Once is over the Battle in the North
Once they're all damned in Black
They All Shall Fall in limbo
In a Pure Holocaust

Death should not scare you
It is just the gateway
The beginning of a long and beautiful ending
The one that we name: Immortal

Let our armies be ready
Let our soldiers be prepared for battles
Set the caskets and the stakes
We will lose some, they will save us

Chorus:
Once is done the Battle in the North
Once they're all damned in Black
They All Shall Fall in limbo
In a Pure Holocaust

In our Mystic Visions Blest
The Darkness That Embrace Me

We are, Immortal!
We are, Immortal!
